Every student at The University of Tulsa must satisfy the requirements of the Tulsa Curriculum, which provides a rigorous, integrated program in the liberal arts. The Tulsa Curriculum contains the following components:

1. Core Curriculum- university-wide writing, mathematics, and language requirements, varying according to degree sought
2. General Curriculum- coursework distributed over three categories within the liberal arts and sciences that stress the connections among various fields of intellectual inquiry
3. Area of Concentration- the courses required for a major and minor or certificate
4. Electives- courses chosen from any of the university offerings

This document, which is a guideline, lists those courses offered by Tulsa Community College that are customarily accepted for credit in the Core and General Curricula by The University of Tulsa. Because requirements vary somewhat from college to college, questions about exceptions and specific course requirements must be directed to the advising office of the college the applicant intends to enter. Fast track courses taught in less than three weeks are not transferable. Supplemental transfer guides are available upon request from the College of Engineering & Natural Sciences, the Collins College of Business and the School of Nursing.

Applicants should keep in mind that:

- No more than one-half of their degree hours can be transferred from two-year colleges
- Credit will only be granted for TCC course that have an equivalent offered at TU
- Credit for an upper division course will not be granted for courses taken at a two-year college, excluding preapproved exceptions
- A grade of C or better must be earned in any transferable course
- All short courses and online courses may not be approved for transfer credit

To assure a smooth transition, we encourage you to schedule a personal appointment with the office of admission or check with the advising office with specific questions.

The General Curriculum

The goal of the General Curriculum is to lead students to a breadth of knowledge and intellectual rigor rooted in the academic disciplines. The General Curriculum blocks defined below provide intellectual coherence for the development of knowledge and discipline.

Exceptions to the Block requirements include the following:
- B.S. degree students may choose two courses in the same language to fulfill a Block I and a Block II requirement.
- Some degree programs or majors, such as Arts Management, Nursing, Elementary Education or the business fields, require specific courses to fulfill Block I, II, or III. Refer to the college advising section of the website or to the University Bulletin at www.utulsa.edu/academics/academic-essentials.

Block I: Aesthetic Inquiry and Creative Experiences- 2 courses (6 hrs)

These courses consider the human activities of making, thinking, and doing. Two different approaches are offered: those that involve students in the creative process through study designed to produce or perform creative works; and those that investigate the nature of texts, works of art or music, or systems of thought.

TCC Courses Customarily Accepted for Block I Credit
- ART 1053 Art History Survey I
- ART 1063 Art History Survey II
- ART 1113 Art Appreciation
- ART 2053 Art History Survey III
- ENGL 2413 Introduction to Literature
- ENGL 2543 British Literature I
- ENGL 2653 British Literature II
- ENGL 2673 World Literature I
- ENGL 2683 World Literature II

- PHIL 1133 Philosophy in Literature
- RELG 2113 Old Testament
- RELG 2123 New Testament
- THEA 1093 Introduction to Theatre

Block II: Historical and Social Interpretation- 4 courses (12 hrs)

These courses investigate and interpret how human thought and action- and the products of such thought and action- are shaped by social, historical, cultural, environmental and/or psychological factors.

TCC Courses Customarily Accepted for Block II Credit
- ECON 2013 Principles of Macroeconomics (required for B.S.B.A.)
- ECON 2023 Principles of Microeconomics (required for B.S.B.A.)

Block III: Scientific Investigation- 2 courses, including one lab (7 hrs)

These courses focus on methods of investigation and explore the relationship among key concepts in the sciences. The process of scientific inquiry- including hypothesis generation, data collection, analysis, and modeling, use of technology and mathematics, and presentation of results- is fundamental to courses in this block. These courses may also consider the interrelationships among technical concepts and contemporary societal issues. At least one of each student’s Block III courses must include laboratory or field experiences that provide practical experience in inquiry.

Area of Concentration

Transfer students should consult TU’s college advising office or admission staff about lower division classes that are prerequisites for or may apply toward their major or minor. Two thirds of the coursework in your major must be taken at The University of Tulsa, and courses taken at two-year colleges cannot be used to satisfy upper division course requirements. For further information on transferring credit to fulfill the business, nursing or engineering core requirements, consult with academic advisors from the Collins College of Business, the School of Nursing or the College of Engineering & Natural Sciences.

Electives

Elective credit may be granted for comparable, lower division courses that are offered by The University of Tulsa. Consult the college advising office on specific classes.
